Three Evenings of Dinner, Story and Creative Conversations

In recognition of Storywalkers Consulting Group's commitment to non-profit work and the launch of their new website, please join consultant and facilitator, Mark Simon, for an evening of exploration and celebration. Each evening is built upon a unique theme, providing a creative space to gather, make connections and find stories waiting to emerge.

Photography and design by Lauren McMerney

Each gathering offers a sample of convening strategies, tools for story, and opportunities for insight that apply to the professional as well as the personal realms of our lives. These conversations are open to anyone interested.

Dinner is included, with a different international menu each evening. The cost for each event is $20. Please register online at www.storywalkers.com. Please contact Mark Simon (msimon@storywalkers.com) with any questions.
